Big — New — Improved — Finer — More Convenient

These are the words that best describe Lucca Ravioli company, one of Daly City's leading food marts, since remodeling and expansion of the store, 7370 Mission street, was completed this week.

More than 400 square feet of floor space has been added to Lucca's spacious wall and island display area. A large beautiful new display wall refrigerator has been installed. New push carriages for customers are available. Dozens of little things, but important ones, have been added to make it easier, quicker, and more convenient to shop at Lucca. And as usual Lucca's traditional policies of courteous service, high quality, low prices, and free delivery prevail.

John Stanghellini, one of the Lucca proprietors, and a licensed pilot, says he's even cut out flying for the past three weeks in order to rush the store expansion to completion before the holidays. Below are pictures of the new interior.

Lucca Ravioli company features imported and domestic groceries, fruits and vegetables, meat, poultry, fish, wines, liquors, hay, grain, feed and fuel. See page 6 for Lucca's specials this week.

Garden of Roses

A rose census by Park Superintendent William Nicholas of the 20,000 rose bushes surrounding the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., revealed that there are 97 kinds of roses represented.

An Old Custom

The customs of women dyeing their hair and tinting their fingernails date back some 4,000 years in Egypt, as is evidenced by pictures in ancient monuments and by mummies.
